“ As the bible says, we God's children are wonderfully made, it is especially true of Harue Hibner. A beautiful fragrance filled the air and pulled you in, wherever she went. She is a one of a kind beauty.

I met her in 1983 when I visited the IOWC team of 15 rambunctious and young 18-22 year-old Japanese missionaries, new to America. Speaking very little English, their spirits and happy hearts were not dampened as they travelled throughout the states.

One missionary in particular stood out, Harue, with her large wide eyes imploring you, eager to engage and serve you! I was amazed by her beauty and enthusiastic loving heart. She focused on me and made it her mission to serve me! I loved and was moved by her beautiful heart. Our encounter was a brief 2-3 months but I never forgot her. I thought to myself, who will the lucky man be who marries this gorgeous, sweet spirit.

I encountered Harue again in Chicago some 10 years later and met her husband and family. Joe, her husband always said to me he was a happy man and especially loved her cooking. I chuckled to learn that her husband had the same enthusiasm, light, bright and exciting as Harue. I also discovered Harue's humor! Her comments would catch you off guard...she was really funny and I loved it. I can only smile and not stop smiling when I think of her!
