“ Jackie meant so much, to so many, for so long -

A full life such as hers will surely live on in the people and generations she touched so deeply.

My family offers strength and prayer to all that will pain in her loss, but hope you soon take comfort in knowing that she is surely at peace.

We know that the memories Jackie created will often fill our hearts and make us smile.

“ I've been blessed to be Jackie & Sol's neighbor for 20 years. They were the first people I met when moving to LBS. Jackie loved her gardening, travels, her home and most of all, Sol, her children and grandchildren. Sol was so proud that they he was married to the most wonderful person in the world for over 60 years. I always enjoyed hearing their stories and tales of their travels. They both always had a kind word and glad to share the latest LBS news. Jackie will be so greatly missed by all but her memory will give us solace. She'll forever live in our hearts and will always be a blessing to everyone who knew her.

There are so many things and memories that I can post about Jackie
When I was going to have the inside of my house painted she said
Grace the color you need not beige
We were at the talbots outlet and I was looking at this sweater had a flag on it and she said you're not just thinking about that you're getting that aren't you
She also suggested I get these sneakers that had dogs on them I am so glad I did that and I had my sweater so many wonderful memories She helped me plan the Carnation party for King Charles that was so much fun we went shopping together and nobody had anything so we went to Amazon online Jackie you will always be in my heart

Jackie was a wonderful neighbor. She & Sol welcomed us to LBS, inviting us in to see her beautiful garden and home. She was a lovely lady and will be missed.

“ Jackie by Lisa Lewin

I liked Jackie the moment I met her. Mike and I took a trip out to Chicago and I was meeting her and Sol for the first time. They pull up to get us from the airport and she gets out and I immediately hugged her. And when we pulled apart I immediately wondered if that had been the right move. I sensed she may have not been the touchy feely type and hoped I hadn't made a bad impression. One of the next times we saw each other Jackie and Sol came out to visit Mike in NJ and we went to NYC for the day. We did Ellis Island, walked around little Italy and had a bite to eat at the famous Katz deli. While Mike and Sol were getting our food I asked if Jackie minded the age difference between Mike and I. Her response was, "No, do you?" and that's when I fell in love with Jackie. No false pretense, no fake niceties just it is what it is. Our relationship continued to grow and on the day we announced we were expecting she pushed my cheek with her finger and said, "I can tell, your face is getting chubby." And while shocking to hear, she was not wrong! From that first meeting we cultivated a relationship full of love and friendship. I admired Jackie for so many reasons and made sure to tell her as often as I could. She was and will continue to be an inspiration to me for what a strong woman looks like, for someone who boldly lived life, and for someone who made connections and loved many people throughout her life.
