“ With a heavy heart I heard today of the loss of Jim, We worked together all over the US on projects and he knew more about setting up a coffee plant than anyone I have ever met, True John Wayne of the Coffee industry, Pray to see you above Good Man. You are missed.

“ One of the most well known traits of Jim was his love of family. If you are lucky enough to be in that circle, there is no doubt you were a blessed recipient of that enormous love. I was fortunate enough to be working a flight from Ohare to Kona with the family. It happened to be Jims birthday. I was able to see first hand his priorities, Treating his family to first class (because that's how he rolled) and traveling to place he loved. The world has lost a dear man who will forever be missed, and heaven has gained an angel. Rest in Peace Sheri Diehl

“ Jim Murar lived a great life. He loved his wife and family above all else. I met Donna in 2009 at work and Jim soon there after at their home. Jim opened his home and heart to the people he cared for. Thanks for so many happy memories of pool parties, travel, steak dinners, Arizona, Sox games, Hawks games, Angelina's wedding... on & on. I leave your family some simple advice "Remember the good times!"

“ I met Jim and we became fast friends later in life. My wife and I enjoyed spending time at Jim & Donna’s home in West Dundee at Christmas playing left-right-center & eating Donna’s wonderful meals more than a few times. My wife and I also enjoyed a trip to Hawaii where Jim toured us around and showed us multiple sites. We watched a Bears game in Hawaii... we also visited their lovely home in Arizona filled with boat rides, hiking, restaurants, casinos and general good laughs. I admired Jim’s zest for life and good nature. I admired Jim’s work ethic and loved hearing about his successful career. Jim took great pride in his coffee work in Hawaii, Italy and across the U.S. To my knowledge Jim did not attend college, however he was one of the most intelligent persons I’ve ever met. I wish Donna and Jim’s entire family peace at this most difficult time. Sincerely, Thomas J. Kelley
