“ Although I graduated from the "other" University in Michigan, Jason never held that against me! Our paths crossed now and again, primarily due to our kids' interaction. Jason was always kind, encouraging and patient with our son Elijah when he tried wrestling as a wee lad. Elijah still plays guitar and is now participating in a worship service, using his talents to honor God - tutelage from Morgan set him on that path, initially. Our daughter Caitlyn always enjoyed having Sydney to look up to when they danced ballet together. It was bitter-sweet for me when Jason landed his job at The Orchard ... I knew it was a welcomed and exciting opportunity for him, but I knew we likely wouldn't rub shoulders as much, going forward. Sadly, that was the case ... but our family will always treasure the happy memories and kindness the entire Graham family has shown us. We grieve with you but look forward to being reunited with Jason in our Lord's presence one day. All our love,
The Terrien Family

“ We are so truly sorry for your loss. We will always remember Jason and his loving nature. He was such a nice man, who loved his family and friends. I will always remember hanging with him at wrestling tournaments watching Ethan and our son. He will be missed. Another Angel to watch over everyone. Love the Ducatos

“ Jason has touched so many lives with his laugh and sense of humor. He is so loved and we are so thankful that he can now rest with the Lord. He will be in our hearts until we can join him worshipping God in heaven. Hearts are hurting on Earth but God is good.

“ I worked w/JG at Harvest and he was a friend, brother and best coworker ever. He walked w/me as I went thru some difficult times. He encouraged me when I was caring for my sick mom and always was so positive. I know him and Dennis are hanging out in heaven and both these men have been a blessing in my life. JG will definitely be missed and I'm thankful to the family for sharing him with us. ❤️❤️

“ Oh, my sweet friends. I share your loss and am overwhelmed by the faith and trust in God that you have beautifully walked out through this most painful journey. Jason's joy is now complete, while you are left with the sorrow of missing someone you so loved. Know that you are being lifted up in prayer continually and loved completely.

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss, Jenny and family. Jason was a dear friend and we had a close relationship over these past 2+ years during his treatment. He is enjoying the start of eternal life with his Savior now. May God comfort you all during this very difficult time.
