“ To the Masupha-D'or family:

My deepest condolences to you on Gary's passing.

Gary and I dated in high school; he was my first boyfriend. I don't know if any of his family members (Mrs. D'or, Brian, Teboho or Portia) will even remember me from way back then, but this was when you guys still lived on the West Side of Chicago, before you moved to Schaumburg.

Gary was the first person to take me out of the bad neighborhood I lived in and show me places like Lincoln Park. He was certain that I would "make it" and be successful one day.

To Gary: thank you for your love, your encouragement and your light. Thank you for the big impact you had on my life that carries with me still.

And you were right: I did make it. And I eventually lived in one of those brownstones we used to stare at so much.

Love, Alysha

“ When u saw Gary he brought light into the room with him. And he always remained positive about things. I guess God needed u more than we wanted u. You'll be missed.
