“ *Jo was a member of our Waco Sterling C. Robertson Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas for many, many years. I had the priviledge of communicating with her on many occasions. The latest being a small card at Halloween to let her know we were thinking of her so I was most upset when her Thanksgiving card was returned yesterday.
Even though I did not ever get to personally meet Jo she was a delight to hear from.
I remember one year in particular she wrote the kindest note in reply and explained that since we never know what the future may bring, she paid her dues for several years in advance. She truly loved being a member of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. We will miss her.*
