“ Our deepest sympathy for the Barry family. I remember your dad as the life of the party, always with a contagious smile. He was fun loving with a goofy side. What I looked forward to most on our Wisconsin dells trips or any event with my dads friends was Mr. Barry’s “bear walks” through the woods. His stories...oh the stories....too many to recall....the red eyed dog for one. My son asked about these stories after we left his wake and my response to him was “he was the best story teller. I couldn’t do justice. He had just as much fun with it than we did as kids, ending always with the biggest smile ever.” I tried to retell a story but it wasn’t the same. Mr. Barry you will be missed. May you Rest In Peace and share your gifts with others from above. John, Jeff, Lisa, Allie and Kelly I didn’t get to speak with all of you but know you are in our thoughts and prayers. I would love to have a reunion back up in Wisconsin Dells. To celebrate all the memories we have had there! Far too many good times. God bless you all. Keep in touch. Many prayers with you today and always.

Kristen, this is Jeannie Barry, one of John’s younger sisters. Reading your take on John’s storytelling brought a smile to me. Thank you. He was telling stories when we were little and one of them way back then was “the red eyed dog!” You captured my brother’s wit perfectly! Thanks for your sweet words. I know he is missed and it just seem real that he is gone too young.

“ Our sincere condolences to the entire Barry family for your loss. We got a chance to spend time with "Mr. Barry" (as we called him) during so many highlights in John & Pauline's journey together. He was always so warm, engaging, funny, and caring about us and our well-being, and we'll miss him dearly.

JB was one of a kind and a true friend. He always greeted you with a comment and a twinkle in his eye! It was all fun and laughter from there on. John was our leader from the time I was 14. He brought me into a great group of guys as a result of working with him at Holy Cross. Those guys remain lifelong friends to this day. JB did so much for me personally over the years I could never repay him. Breaks my heart to lose him and I pray he is laughing at us from Heaven. I miss him dearly and always will. Good rest your soull JB! Jim (and Maureen) Kosla
