“ Dear Johnny,
I'll always remember that snowy day (Or was it blindingly sunny?)
you taught me how to stickshift in your old Accord. (Or was it a Civic?)
that day I saw you as not just that sweet, goofy kid I knew growing up
but as a good, gracious, grown-up man.
Dear John, I'll always remember that day and so many more.

One is of John and Debbie at our Aunt and Uncle's House on Christmas Eve 1976 in the picture is my sister Cathy and Judy with her husband Curt.
The 2nd Picture is from December 18th 1976 at our annual St.
Patrick High School swim. To many names to write down. You will know a few of them. Debbie will know a lot from St. Ben's.

We worked together with Tony and had a lot of fun. I'm in Louisiana now sorry I can't be there. I'm very hurt by hearing that my heart goes out to the wife and family. God Bless all of you. Hope he has the rest he needed and maybe they have a zambi in heaven that's a small joke we both drove one in Skokie Park Ice Area.
