“ I learned of this far too late and I regret not reaching out previously. At St Kiril Metodij, John was an absolute legend. Despite his teaching dancing and folklore, John through his actions and wisdom inspired me to become an educator. Peace and blessings to Galia. I really appreciated you. And I still do. John was truly a master of his craft, and I am grateful to have stood beside him na oro. I remember the stories about Atanas, I still remember his visit which is something we never would have had back in the day without the connection to John, and I still listen to Kete. I still remember all the steps.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of John. John was a fine man of very high intellect and will be sorely missed. I have many fond memories of our time working together in Chicago. I will always value our friendship during those years and many following years after I retired.

“ My sincerest condolences to John's family and friends at his passing. John was a wonderful friend whom I will miss so very much. His knowledge, his command of history, his artistic abilities, his passion for dancing, of music, a true audio file and a polyglot. He taught me much and shared selflessly. We are all diminished by his passing. We all need to remember who he was and aspire to follow his footsteps in any way we can. Fair thee well my friend wherever you may go and I am comforted in the knowledge we will meet again.
