“ To the McGrath family,

Words are often never enough to pay tribute to a great man and Jack was a great man. I worked with Jack and found him brilliant beyond belief always amazed by his memory. His loyalty, I never met anyone that possessed Jack's ability to foster a team so dedicated to work together, just amazing and spoke volumes to the leader and man he was. His sense of humor never waivered, loved his stories and sharing a cup of coffee, always the gentleman I feel truly blessed to have known him. My thoughts and prayer go to your entire family.....linda brennan “ Mrs. McGrath & family. Jack was not only a friend, but more like a father to me & the rest of the Sears Maintenance Engineers. He was always there for me; supporting not only my career, but also in my personal family & financial life. He was paramount in assisting me in buying my first home. I could never thank him enough for everything he did for me and my family. We looked forward to the Christmas cards every year (even after my career with Sears had ended) knowing that Jack still thought of me. I only wish that I had more time to spend with him and pick his brain for all of the wisdom that he possessed! Please know that even though I was unable to attend the services in person, someday I'll catch you in the "penthouse" again man! - with love, Nels & Gina Rozhon & Mikayla & Andrew too!

“ Aunt Angela,

I'm very sorry for your loss. The world lost a great man who mesmerized me as a child with his Donald Duck impersonations as well as dazzled me with magic and how he could remove his thumb. Sending you all my love and prayers during this difficult time.

*Love,
Kyle*

“ To The McGrath Family,

Grief is not a disorder, a disease or a sign of weakness. It's an emotional, physical and spiritual necessity; the price paid for love. The only cure is to grieve one day at a time.

John was a good man. He carried virtues of kindness, honesty and a sense of humor.

One has to be thankful for people who have made us happy and have given value to our existence. It's immense sadness felt upon losing them. Why is a husband, father, grand-father, and friend taken from us? It gives one subject to ponder. But, when cherished memories of that person lives on in our hearts, we can say that life is good. We have been blessed. It's inevitable that life eventually ends for each of us, but some people exist and never live. John lived, laughed and loved. May he now be resting in the warmth of God's love and may his wife and family find solace in God's strength during all the tomorrows.

It's been a while since we last saw John, but we always enjoyed being in his presence which lite up a room. Now time speaks. It whispers that it's time to bid John adieu.

To John's family. . . please know that each of you are in our thoughts and prayers.
