“ I am so sorry for your loss. As one of Susan's oldest friends, I knew Jay well and remember good times and fun memories from the past. He helped Susan get her job with the Bulls and the rest was history from there. May he rest in peace and be happy with his beautiful wife Nancy in heaven. ❤️

I had the pleasure of going to school at St. James with your Dad. Found memories for many years with your Dad in our youth. Many years of friendship, (sometimes a game of poker) He always had an unforgettable smile. I'm sure he will be missed.....and your mom too.
