“ Such a shock to hear that Jack is no longer with us. So many wonderful memories from Itasca Pool days and good times spent with such a great friend. Family situations prevent me from attending the service but I am there in spirit and have been seeing reflections of his smile and that glint in his eye in my memory ever since I heard the sad news. I will miss you Jack. See you at sunset my friend. Rich Scoles

“ Uncle Jack I will miss you! I will always remember our trip to the horse farm where we meet " Daisy" a pretty little pony. I will always treasure the time we had together. You are finally free from all the pain. Enjoy your time with Nana and Papa please tell them I love them and miss them and think of them every day! Rest in peace love you "little Cheryl" Have a great journey

“ Jack, I will always love you. You're forever my "sweetie pie" and my "honey bun." I'm sure God has welcomed you into his Kingdom. I'm glad we had a chance to say we still cared about each other the last time we talked. I miss you.
