“ Uncle Jack always had a way of making everyone feel special. I know he and aunt Viv always made me feel that way growing up and as an adult. Never missed a birthday or anniversary. We always had such fun at family gathering. But really Uncle Jack was the special one. He was always there for all of us. He believed in family. Love you Uncle Jack Cindy

“ I think my fondest memory of Jack would be when he'd come to St. Hubert's every Sunday morning when I opened up the church at 6:30. He would meet me at the tabernacle to get a consecrated host so he could bring Communion to Viv, at home. We'd chat a bit, and then go on about our day. I was deeply saddened to hear he has passed. I'll miss you, Jack.
