“ *Dearest Auntie Johnnie,
Where do I begin? Perhaps with the obvious...I am crushed over your passing and heart broken I did get to go to the Tuesday visitation. The only bit of comfort I find is remembering your words “I don’t want everyone sitting around in a room crying over me, I want them too celebrate!”. I know after Angie passed, we had a tribute for her on her birthday. You had made a comment that everyone should be remembered like that...so that is what I will do today! I love you so much Auntie Johnnie and I thank you for your unbelievable strength! Brittany posted a picture of you and Angie holding each other and smiling like a couple of crazies... and in this very sad time, it made my heart smile! I truly believe that’s how you two look as you reunite... God willing and the creek don’t rise!!! I love you Auntie Johnnie, may you forever rest in peace!*

“ Mamma, I miss you so much. We all miss you. It seems like every few minutes my mind replays a memory of you and I find myself crying but also smiling because I am lucky to have had such good memories. We will talk about you all the time and my kids will never forget the love and fun they experienced with you. I love you! Love, Lisa

“ *My mother was one of a kind.
Ready with her beautiful smile for her children, to shield us from her pain. Her fight against cancer in many forms for many, many years has amazed her doctors and also her hospice staff over the past two years.
As her daughter I know I speak for all her children and grandchildren; she always felt blessed to have us in her life but we were the blessed. Rest in peace my truly wonderful mother,
Sheila*
