“ It is terribly sad to think that there is not one single memory of this little boy. It breaks my heart. I remember Johnny Linquist and hearing about his horrific death when I was 12 years old. It was the first time I had ever heard of a parent killing their child and read the newspaper article detailing the incident. I never forgot Johnny's name. I will never forget Johnny and what he went through. I know he is at peace in heaven now in the presence of Jesus. I had to say something remembering him and his short life, especially since no one else has said anything about him. A beautiful boy whose life ended much too soon. God bless you and I hope to meet you in heaven when I leave this earth.

Cindy, you took the words out of my head. I was 11 and I remember that adorable child and the horrible circumstances of his death. I never imagined parents could be so cruel and evil. Johnny hits my thoughts every now and then and I feel the same sadness and I wipe away the tears. Rest In Peace Johnny the pain is over and some of us do remember you fondly even though we didn't know you in life. Love, spiritual hugs and air kisses for always.
