Bless us Lord, as we pray for our beautiful son Jonathan. You led our Jonathan home last Sunday, please let him know, as we pray for him we are blessed with the treasured memories & how his contagious laugh & smile will never be forgotten. Jonathan as a baby, our family & friends could see that you were a gift from God. I still treasure a note from our friend Ellen when she helped babysit you when you just a few weeks, she wrote the following;

“Dear Jonathan, What a pleasure you are, it was so wonderful to meet you. To see the creation of two beautiful loving people, it lit a candle of hope in my heart for the future. I enjoyed sneaking in your room and watching you sleep so peacefully, wiggling your left hand every so often to grasp the bunny’s ear. It made me remember miracles, sunny days, blooming flowers and wonders of love, faith, & continuity. I hope to watch you grow and prosper in the cocoon of love your parents have made for you. Thank you for reminding me of the importance and freshness of life. Thank your parents for allowing me to share the day with you. Love Ellie” You were the most perfect child a parent could dream of, loving, patient, understanding, & always loving everyone you met. At the age of 3, your maturity was that of a thirty year old. We agonized the moment we learnt of your diabetes, you were such a trooper, never complained on receiving 5 to 6 shots a day & getting your finger pricked before each shot. Your Buddy-Brother James showed you creative ways on how to flush lipstick, socks, toys & other odds & ends down the toilet. The world was not safe when the 2 of you were toddlers, childproofing was a joke. Both of you enjoyed starting up your own band by pulling pots & pans out of the kitchen cabinets and then becoming Interior Designers by decorating all the walls in our condo with permanent black marker while Dad & I slept. You loved your video games, at the young age of 3, you beat me at Mario brothers video game, so that is when the Video Gamer Madness started with you!. When you started school, I remember your 1st grade teacher telling me how impressed she was of you. So mature for your age, she said you were so diplomatic with your peers, had a flare with words & strongly felt you were going to be a great leader. You made us so proud with your grades & making us prouder with helping with Community work. We were so proud of you as you helped by babysitting your cousins, Robin & Michael, you had a passion to share your knowledge and loved helping them with their homework & tutoring your young friend Nick. You loved going over to Grandpa (Gramps) where you enjoyed his food & playing with his pets. You, James, & Christopher loved to go to his house and play because you always had fun & each visit was a new huge adventure. You cherished the ground Grandma Ellie walked on, she introduced you to your first McDonalds, Calamari, Capers & open your savings account. Once you were focused with College, we were so proud of your grades & dedication to your studies. You struggled as what you wanted to do; "Should I be a scientist, accountant, lawyer, or teacher?" You knew your passion was not in the restaurant industry but we knew you would not trade the world for all the friends you made at Dirty Nellie in Palatine & The Cheesecake Factory in Lincolnshire.

I will never forget how nervous, excited, thrilled & blessed you felt to have the AWESOME opportunity to work at Lundbeck LLC in Deerfield. On your 2nd day there you had the confidence of someone who had worked there for at least 10 years. When you started work, you were STUNNED to have the awesome opportunity that Dr. Eric Floyd had created the pathway & the opportunity to work with Dr. Erik Eglite in the Compliance department. Every day you shared your sense of humor & love with everyone you encountered. You shared with me many times that it was a privilege to work with Judi Edwards. You respected & appreciated how she dropped everything to make time for you no matter how busy she was to help you with unexpected challenges. This new career opportunity gave you more time to spend with us on the weekend where we were already thinking of adventures we could do together. We miss you so much, Our brothers & sisters are agonizing the loss

“ Dear Jay & family,
I have never met any of you, but I feel I know you from all the things Glenn has told me about you. I know he was very fond of Jonathan. It had to come as a real shock to learn he had passed. I can only imagine your grief. Losing a child has to be the most difficult time in a parent's life. I hope knowing so many people are grieving for you will ease the pain.

We're so very sorry.

“ My heart hurts for you all. The loss of a child is something no parent should have to suffer through. Though I don't know any of you personally, but I know that you are a close and loving family and you will find the strength in each other to get through what will undeniably be one of the hardest times of your lives. Thoughts and prayers and love to all of you!! May he rest in peace.

“ I don't know his family, but Jon and I use to hang out a lot and I considered him one of if not my best friend. We had great times and learned a lot from each other. He touched a lot of people in his life and I am more than grateful he chose to spend and share his life with me and others. He will never be forgotten and has been and continue to watch over us all for the future years. As I know you are, and I am proud to call him a best friend. I can't say enough about him , but he is and was a great person. I'm sorry for your loss, our loss...

“ Jaye, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. You were so supportive with your prayers 3 years ago when my Mom passes. I will never forget. Sending positive thought and prayers to get you through this most difficult time. Good thing you have a very supportive boss.

“Jaye, you introduced me to Jonathan long before I met him. You spoke of him with love and we shared the “joys” of raising sons. Then I met him through work. His laugh, sense of humor, action oriented personality like his mom were inFectious! IJust loved him! Now your baby is truly raised by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Now, dear Jay and Jaye, I pray the you find strength everyday. I pray you are consoled and that each day your memories bring you joy as you remember how blessed you are to have been Jonathan’s parents. Yet I know this will be the toughest time of your lives brefore you. Refer God loves you and so do I. My deepest condolences
