

Mr. Joseph D. Demauro of Chicago

September 20, 1955 - October 17, 2017

Joseph "Joey" D. DeMauro, 62, of Chicago, Illinois.

Joseph "Joey" D. DeMauro was born on September 20, 1955 in Chicago, Illinois and born into eternity on October 15, 2017. Joey never met a person who wasn't his friend. Joey was charismatic, funny, an amazing storyteller who loved his family and friends deeply. Joseph leaves behind a family that will cherish their memories with him for all of time, including his Mother, Joann DeMauro (late father Joseph DeMauro), his beloved partner Maureen Benbenek, his beautiful sisters Katherine (Bobby) Randazzo and Jeannette (James) Jordan, three adoring nieces, Elizabeth (Joe) Hummrich, Melissa (Charlie) Leibfritz and Lauren (Joe Cece) Jordan and two loving nephews Joseph and Michael Haupers. Joey leaves behind nine great nieces and nephews who loved their uncle endlessly; Jacob, Isabella, Ramon, Gianna, Wednesday, Arabella, Caden, Angelo and Jordan. Joseph was the cherished grandson of the late Theresa Antkers and Catherine and Dominick DeMauro. Joey was a true family man who lived his life to the fullest. Joey was an avid fisherman and golfer. Joey loved his special place at the Buckhorn in Wisconsin and all of his local hangouts in his beloved hometown of Chicago. Joey was a devout Blackhawk, Cubs and Bears fan and his presence will be missed by many of his loving friends. We celebrate this wonderful man who led our family with humility, strength and humor. May God bless you always.

“ Joe, Your loyalty, kindness and love of life was obvious to everyone. You were the guy everyone wanted on his team, you were a born leader, there were no half measures, only 100%. Your life ethic inspired others to to do their best, You were more than a great athlete (great hands and quick) you were the player/coach and leader.

How you loved and protected your Mom and the girls was awesome, I will never forget the "watchful eye" of brother Joey..... Joe you will be missed, but never forgotten. You made the world a better place for so many of us. Rest in peace my friend.

Till we meet again,

“ Hi Joey, I could write a book about you but you told me a couple months ago that you weren't reading as much as you used to so I will just tell you that you are and always will be such a gentle, loving, caring and funny soul! You always made family gatherings so much fun just by being you. You are and will always be deep inside my heart ❤️ I love you to the moon 🌙 and back my very, very, special forever friend 🌈❤️💚

“ We truly lost one of the great ones. Every time I saw Joey, no matter how long it was, I was greeted with a great big genuine smile, a hand shake and a hug. He truly had a warmness about him and always made me feel like a true friend. I will forever cherish our times at Buckhorn sitting on the rocks trying to catch that big one and just in general enjoying the outdoors. He was truly an outdoorsman and probably the best fisherman in the group. His generosity, good nature, friendship and love of life defined his character. I have so many memories of being with him, laughing and enjoying family. I will truly miss him as I'm sure we all will. Well my friend, you left us too soon. This life is too short; we will all see you soon! Don't forget your fishing pole. Your friend, Joe Haupers.

“ Dear Joe, I will always remember your sweet disposition and your loving nature. Every time I saw you, there was always a big loving hug and genuine warmth. The sparkle in your eyes displayed your beautiful spirit. I will treasure the memories and times spent and how you would always tell me how grateful you were for the friendship between me and your sister Kathy. I hope that you are enjoying that big lake in heaven and catching the big ones that got away. May you Rest In Peace and know that you were and are still loved. Florence Baird
