“ *Joe was a fine human being.
We met a time or two trying to get the New Beginnings group going with bicycling in Deer Grove. I remember his warmth and caring. I'm a bit hazy about the details, this being several years ago, but I do remember his concern about a woman expressing interest in biking. He didn't think she could pull it off, whether due to health issues or having a single-speed bike I don't recall. I do remember his thoughtful consideration.
Enjoyed seeing him at the picnics, always cheerful.

“ *Joe joined me & many others this past winter perfecting his game at the pool table. Slow & steady even with a loss I can still hear him say "rackum up". We all have missed him & find it hard to accept that he won't walk in to surprise us. Such a fighter, a really great guy.
Rest easy Curly Joe. Jo Boudreau*
