“ We grew up together in Maple Hts, Ohio. So sad. I knew his Mom Pat and his Brother David. Such a great family. He was big into Star Wars. We played baseball in the same league. I remember we shut there team out 24-0 in three innings. Joe was a good guy.

“ Joe and I have been friends and he has been an "adopted" member of the Brasch family for 34 years. We stayed in touch through the best and worst of times and I can't believe he's gone. The loss is immeasurable. I will miss his crazy stories, his compassion, his goofy sense of humor and most of all his friendship. My family and I mourn along with yours. I can only hope that he is at peace and resting now.

“ Joe and our family were brought together several years ago. We became neighbors. We are beyond saddened by his loss, like so many others. Words are so hard to put together. May God bless Joe, Kerry, and all of his children. The Lord has a new angel who can fix anything or build anything. 🙏 He will be missed.

“ This photo is St. Patrick's Day 2016. A very fun day had by everyone. After Joe was released from the hospital, he hand delivered a thank you card to my wife and I for a simple gift basket we sent him. Even though it was clear he had been through an ordeal, the fact that he still went out of his way to show his appreciation speaks volumes about his caring for others even in the face of a serious illness. We wished each other a Merry Christmas and I said “Love you brother “ and he looked at me and said “Love you too man.” I shall treasure that as my final memory of him. He has left us but he will never be gone. Thanks for the friendship and the laughter my friend. The spirit of “Big Joe” will always be in our hearts.
