“ Dear Cathy and sons,
Words cannot fully express our sadness in the passing of Joe. I personally have known Joe since 1982 (Linda Emery) when I worked at Vistana Resort in Orlando and he and Perry Weinstein would come to the resort to work on the books for the owners. You had just gotten engaged and he was so excited. I, myself, got married shortly after you and Joe. There wasn't much opportunity for us together, as we moved to Texas, then Indiana. We did, however, stay in touch by phone and he did meet our family once at the Field Museum for part of a day back in 2001. He began doing our taxes after my dad passed away and I was overwhelmed with the estate and all that was involved in preparing the taxes. He did them from then on. He was a great conversationalist and we had a lot in common. He was always kind, polite, soft spoken, smart and extremely proud of his family. I wish we had known he was sick, we would have made the trip up to Chicago from Indianapolis. We did try and get to the memorial, however, I couldn't get in touch with the office to find out just where it was to be. Our warmest thoughts, and prayers are with you and your sons. Know how much Joe will be missed by many. We were also so sorry to hear from Claudia of the passing of your sister in law as well. Such tragedy for your family to bear. Call upon the Lord in these times, he will give you comfort. Feel free to email me anytime. I'd like that.

“ Nancy and I just learned of Joe's passing this morning (Dec.26th). We are so very saddened by his passing. It would be impossible for us to attend any services, because we live in suburban Atlanta Ga. Nancy and I will have his name mentioned at all the Mass services at our church next week.

“ Joe's Family,

My stepfather (Herb Blum) used to work in the office with Joe, and Joe did my taxes for me after Herb passed away. Joe was the most patient and helpful person with me when I came in with folders of information for the four of us in my family and a friend of the family. He went through everything with me so that he understood all of my paperwork and scribbles. Joe was very accommodating and even helped me with some tax questions “off-season”. My heartfelt condolences to you all. I'm not even family but I will really miss him tremendously. Best regards, Robin Guy

“ Joe was a great addition to our large group of cousins. I enjoyed his company at family parties. Though he was a quiet man, one on one we had some good debates. As a great accountant he was often ready with free advice. He will be missed. I am sending love to his family during this transition. Sorry that Tim and I will be in Florida for the services, but we will be there in spirit.

“ I cannot say enough good things about Joe. Always kind, always polite and caring. Always helpful. Him and I used to joke about me dumping my taxes off in a brown paper bag if something ever happened to Tim and leave for him to figure it out. He was a great friend. He helped me with my brother's estate when he passed and I knew I could trust him and he would take care of me. Anyway, buddy, you will be missed and you were loved.

“ Dear Cathy, Jonathan, Ryan and Grant, Words seem so inadequate to express how sad and sorry I am to hear about Joe's passing. I wish I could come up with some wonderful words that would heal the pain and sadness you feel right now. Please take some comfort in knowing your Joe (your husband and your father) will be thought of and prayed for by everyone who loves you all. I wish you peace and only happy memories to help you through this sad time.
