“ I will miss you grandma Nita. I was thinking about when I was about 5 and I used to sit on the top of your chair when we lived on Taylor in Oak Park and comb your hair. And talk and talk and talk, an you would say "baby, I will pay you if you stop talking". LOL. I would stop for like a minute and say ok can I talk now grandma haha. So many many memories. Love you always. Lisa

“ Nita was a very nice person and a great mother in law. Who could forget her and Jessie at the bowling alley bringing home all those trophies. She was kind to almost everyone and always did what she could to help you in a time of need. Well at least no more suffering Nita and we look forward to seeing you on the paradise earth some day.
