“ I will cherish and remember last Christmas at my house spent with you, Eddie, Laura and Brad and the pecan pie you made and brought. I will remember and smile at the times we shared while we drove home from Laura and Brads and stopping at burger king. I will miss you, your smile and your joking personality. Rest in peace Kari

“ There's no words that can describe how much I miss you and will continue to miss you everyday going foreword. I'll never forget how much I loved coming over to your house when I was younger to watch movies, play board games, and listen to music. You were there for me through so much and you always supported me no matter what. You could always make me laugh and you were always just a phone call away when I needed someone to talk to. You were one of my best friends and you will be greatly missed. I love you auntie Kari.

“ You always think you have more time but it's never enough. I hope you can see the outpouring of love for you, you were loved!! I will miss our talks (I don't know what to do on my drive home now) your laugh, your jokes and your stories. I believe you are at peace and no longer in pain and I'm thankful for that at least but selfishly I want you here. Thoughts and prayers to everyone as we all grieve the loss.

“ I feel so empty, the thought of never hearing your voice again, your contagious laugh and feel your smile across the phone. I read in our yearbook last night, you wrote ‘there were times I wanted to punch you in the face, but you probably wanted to punch me too!’ We were always able to laugh off our difference and then share a bowl of buttered noodles. I will miss you so much...
