“ Kathy was one of the best people I have ever known. I met her nearly 35 years ago and our friendship stood the test of time. Despite the many challenges she faced in her later years, she was a constant source of inspiration to both Randy and me. Her wisdom and her capacity to love was boundless. I will miss her for the remainder of my life, as will Randy. We loved her and are crushed by her death. I wish we could have done more to alleviate her suffering. She is at peace now and I know God has reserved a special place for her, a place that will be filled with joy and the many critters she cared for over the years. RIP my sister.
