“ I met Kathy through Internet Miniature Pinscher Service. She adopted 2 dogs from me. The second one, Juliet, was special but I knew she was going to a wonderful home with Kathy and Larry because they love and spoil their dogs. I saw them at least once a year to get my “Juliet fix” as I called it. And the last few years I invited Kathy and Larry to my home to visit with Juliet. I will miss Kathy dearly! She loved her dogs so much and was a terrific dog mom! And I hope Larry will let me know if he needs anything.

“ I have done Kathy's nails for 23 years. Every 3 weeks I was her therapist and friend..I can't tell you all we spoke about but I know she looked forward to it...this is such a shock I never thought this last Friday would be the last time we would see each other...I will miss her...I know she will be happy to see all the loved ones that have passed on and she missed so much...i will keep you all in my prayers especially you Larry🥹🥹🥹love from all of us at Pat's Place

“ I met Kathy through Ebay, we both bought Ziggy items. And then we became friends and my husband and I came to Chicago to see their Ziggy collection which was amazing. I will never forget that day! They they came and visited us in Missouri to see my collection. Larry brought his Margarita machine and made margaritas and we sat on the deck and listened to Bob Marley, great times. I will miss her so much. She was Ziggy1fan4ever and she will be my Ziggy friend forever.
