“ As a member of "The Hackers", Ken was a great guy to have in your foursome. He was full of life and laughs even if his game wasn't all it should be. I really love playing in his foursome and just talking with him after playing. He was, especially, delighted when he was a winner in one of the Chuck Molitor "games". I will miss his smile and sense of humor and will keep him in my prayers.

With sadness,

“ Matt and I played alot of cards with Mary and Ken, almost every time Ken and I found ourselves arguing about the rules. Ken liked to change them and I did not, but it was all in fun. On the golf course, I drove him a little crazy, I tend to talk when he was putting, I did not think I talked loud, but he heard me. Lots of great memories of similing Ken, He will be greatly missed. I know Matt and I will treasure the times we had spent today. Ken was also very generous and funny. With much love Matt and Noreen Tusinski
