“ The "Dos Equis Guy" was nothing compared to Larry... Larry was "The Most Interesting Man in the World". I'm grateful that I got to know Larry, but wish I could have gotten to know Larry better. He was the best that there could be in his trade, he took tremendous pride in the work that he did for us at Elmhurst Memorial, ensuring that we were able to provide safe patient care. Larry will truly be missed.

“ He was my big brother. And it was comforting to always know that if I needed him, he'd be there. Without question, he'd be there. I spoke to him very recently and he finished the conversation like he always did. “Take care little brother” I'll see you again Larry, it's gonna be awhile, I have lots left to do here, but I will see you again. Say hi to everyone for me. I love you

“ My son Ken and Larry were best friends since they were teenagers. Larry was a part of our family. The guys loved to get their band together and practice at my house or Larry's house or, just hang out. He and Greg, another close friend, made a point of staying in touch with me after my son died. A sweet, loving young man. He will be missed.

“ James and Sherry Neal
Larry and I had several special moments together as we were inseparable as kids, but one comes to mind that we have laughed about several times is our shenanigans with our inflatable rafts at the Butler Lake bridge taunting unsuspecting passers by, one specifically trying to sink our rafts as we passed back in forth under the bridge, I believe we might have taunted him! Thanks for the thousand memories, I was supposed to go first as always! Hug Dee, Grandma, Grandpa, Uncle Glenn, Annette and tell Ken B. We will have a great gig when I get there!
