

Mrs. Leslie Gibson

July 25, 1953 - June 17, 2025

Leslie Gibson; nee Mermall, of Huntley, Illinois.

Loving wife of Donald Gibson; devoted mother of Nathaniel (Kaitlin) Gibson and Allison (Kirstin) Bowns; cherished memaw of Hunter, Wyatt and Sawyer. She was preceded in death by her parents, Hunter and Virginia Mermall.

Leslie was the heart of her family, loving them more than anything in the world and giving of herself endlessly to ensure that everyone always felt valued and supported. Affectionately named Memaw, she was always prepared with a snack, a craft, and a song to brighten your day. Nothing brought her more joy than her grandchildren and time at the cabin with her family. She will forever be remembered for her wisdom, hugs, and ability to make everyone feel like they are the most important person in the room.

“ Leslie was a cherished teacher and dear friend to my children and to my husband and I. Such a beautiful, sweet, friendly soul so full of love and understanding. I will always remember her and her lovely family with great admiration and gratitude. So sad not to be in town for her celebration .. will be in Colorado for a long planned family event. God bless Leslie .. she was a cherished friend. Cindie Welsh Patterson

“ I was a little kid around 10 years old. Everyone in the neighborhood knew Sam's Hot dogs I passed Leslie walking by. She said hey kid help get this dog out of my front door . Well that dog followed her home and refused to leave. i kid you not I couldn't get that dog to move. Well so Leslie ended up keeping that dog . And well you know she ended up calling him none other then (Moocher) And who knew down the road Leslie would become my Sister in law .R.I.P
