“ Les was a long time friend and land lady > she was very caring and giving person and she gave so much to myself and my daughters .I was a single Mom and she was in the building and she was there if the girls needed anything at all when I was at work ,they were old enough not to need a sitter but young enough to need someone in an emergency and it was a comfort that she was there for them . She would take them along when they went on vacation . She had the girls come out and baby sit for her in the summer so they could earn money for school clothes she took one out one week and the other the next . She had such a positive outlook on life it was contagious . She was a very good judge of character ,she took a chance on renting an apartment to me when most people would not rent to Moms alone . When she choose a new tenant she would usually be right in her choice . She had a beautiful heart ,full of kindness and love, and would help anyone she had the opportunity to help . This world has lost a great lady but heaven has welcomed an angel home.
