“ In the early 90’s my fiancée, Jayna, and I moved from California to Illinois. When we moved into our new home across the street from Lisa and Barry, she was the first person we met. We were unpacking boxes when Lisa knocked on our door to introduce herself and ask if we needed anything. She handed us a plate of homemade brownies as a welcome gift. It was so sweet that I felt like I was in an old Frank Capra movie. In very little time we grew to love her and her family. I recall walking into their house once and Annabel, who must have been four or five years old, jumped up and shouted, “Bobby’s home!”. Lisa and Barry’s house truly was a second home to us and we felt like family there. Lisa was a gift to anyone that knew her. Our love goes out to Barry, Barry II, Sara, Danny, Annabel, and their families.
