“ My earliest memories are with the Acosta and Silva families. I'm so grateful to have had them in my life for as long as I can remember. Both families had what I considered a big family. Looking back, I realize that I was drawn to big families because my brothers were 10 and 13 years older than me, and I cherished the opportunity to be part of a lively, vibrant household. Growing up, we spent hours playing outside, and creating unforgettable memories. As we grew older, I spent countless hours in the Acosta house, surrounded by the love and camaraderie of Beto, Danny, Susie, and Eddie. We shared stories, laughter, and adventures, and I always felt welcomed into their home by Mr. and Mrs. Acosta. Mr. Acosta's warm smile and genuine interest in my parents' well-being always touched my heart. His dedication to his family was truly inspiring. A few years ago, I had the privilege of sharing breakfast with Sue and her father, and witnessing the beauty of their bond. Watching them share a donut, just as they had many years ago, was a poignant reminder of the power of love and tradition. Sue, having breakfast with you and your father that morning will always remain a cherished memory, a testament to the enduring power of family and friendship. The way you cared for your father during his final days was a beautiful, selfless act of love, a shining example of compassion and devotion.

May your Dad Rest in Peace. To the entire Acosta family, my deepest condolences. 🙏💔

“ My most sincerest condolences for such an immeasurable loss. Mr. Acosta has always been such grand light to all those around him. Since my childhood, I have known him to be such a wonderful person. Always made me laugh...told some great stories, and always very passionate of what he loved...his family, his community. Bearing witness to the father/daughter he shared with my Susana, was truly a blessing. Every little girl should enjoy this gift! Mr. Acosta, you will be missed by many, remembered by all, and continue to live in all the hearts you touched. Con mucho cariño, y gran respeto, se le quiere mucho....una de sus Flacas ❤️ Descanse en Paz 🙏

“ I remember when we were kids on our way from Moyagua to Las Escobas Lorenzo was about 14years old and I was about 7years old. Lorenzo had secured the saddle on my horse and as we began our trip I slowly started to slide and ended up under the belly of the horse because the saddle slid around. I was hanging on for dear life until our father came and rescued me. Lorenzo and I laughed about that well into our 80's. I hold so many memories close to my heart of my brother and he will always be with me. May you rest in peace brother, love your sister Sarah.
