“ My first memory is of Lou when he was about 14 and i was 4. He was building a model. i remeber he did not push me away and was always kind. He lived with us when he went to college, my job everyday was to wake him up. It was a lot of work, he never got mad. My mother (his sister) used to make him take me on dates when he went to the drive-in, as i got older i realized what a burden it was to have me around. He never said a work When i was in college and needed some help, he sent bail money (only happened once). He never questioned. As time went on he became many things, my Uncle, a Great Uncle to my childern and a Grandpa figure to my grandchildren. And to me, the brother i never had. He taught me many things, he will always be in my heart. I mss him. We will meet again.

Your nephew, Ken

“ It's time to say Goodbye to my best friend of 37 years! I met you when you were 50 years old and I was 37 years old and we became the best of friends at Howard Pontiac! I only worked there 6 months, our friendship grew and grew and we would go to the show once a week or so after work and I started going out to your house as often as I could for you had so many things to do around the house! There was always something to fix and Lou could no longer do them by himself and we would often spend from early morning till dark working for it was hard to keep up with what had to be done.

But we both enjoyed working on different projects around his house and 20 acres or so of land. We would go into town a lot and I got to meet lots of his friends and some family! Many times I would stay over Friday and Saturday and pick up a pizza and bring back to the house and he would talk about when his parents owned a pizza place on the main street for a few years and how good it was. I could go on for we were best friends from the first time we met. We talked about his family in detail and in many ways I felt as if we were all family! In time my job for I now worked at a bank and it got harder to get together but we would talk 3 or 4 times a day and sometimes late into the night for we were buddies!

I could talk for hours about all the things we did over the years but now I'm sad I can no longer see or talk to my buddy anymore and believe me I miss him so much but many times I have sat on the couch at night and hope he would call. Lou was a very special friend and in many ways we were like brothers! I look forward to the day when we will meet up again and I believe we will pick up where we left off. Take care and I and many others will miss you for you were one of the good guys and that's a beautiful thing!

“ When I first met Lucian it was threw my wife's family before we got married. Lucian ended up being my best man at our wedding. Lucian was the best man anyone would be lucky enough to know. Although not related, he has always been uncle Lou to our kids.

I was lucky to meet Lou thru my now husband Dave about 10 years ago. Lou and Dave were best friends for 37 years. Lou was the first person that I told that I loved Dave. This is a fond memory of mine.
