“ Nobody cared about our animals (or people) more than Luis. Even when we moved to the suburbs, he still called to check in on how Daisy or our family was doing. He just knew so much about all our pet's habits and needs.

I know he was having a lot of medical difficulties in the end and it broke my heart to hear what he was going through when we last spoke. He didn't deserve anything less than to be comfortable and happy.

He had the biggest heart and he never held back. He will be terribly missed by all of us.

AN

He was a jack of all trades. Not a mean bone in his body. Rest easy big Lou. We love you. ❤️
