“ *Dear Sunday and Family,
I just learned of your beloved mother's passing. Please accept my most deepest sympathies on your loss. Although I didn't know your mom personally, your many stories about her on your daily hospital visits made me feel as if I was fortunate enough to know her. May God give you strength through this very difficult time, and may your many happy memories comfort you.*

Love & blessings,

Oh Mrs. Mollica,

I can hear you talking with, to me, oh how fun, I always enjoyed your company & wish I had more of it. Sunday, Joe, I am so sad to hear of her passing, what a void, & how lonely without her here. I will try to come to the chapel, but Oct 14, is my brother's birthday, & since he's passed, ... well, my mom still has a very difficult time with that day, so I typically keep her company on this day, I am not certain if i can get away from her on this day, but IF i cannot, i will contact you soon. My love & prayers to you both...now she's with your dad again, but as humans, it still is the worse part of life.

xoxo always, MaryAnn Tardi
