“ Dear Luisa, again and again ~we are deeply sorry. We are in utter shock. God’s ways are mysterious. Margo’s personality brought absolute joy to so many people. That’s what I remember about her. She’s was beautiful here on earth, and in heaven she’s beyond radiant.
Please know that we are here for you, and we are all keeping you in our fervent thoughts and prayers. It is true that Margo is no longer suffering; she’s at peace with the Lord, surrounded by love. I believe that Mom and Nelly had open arms waiting for her, hugging her, kissing her, and sharing joyful laughter. She is meeting all her ancestors. They are showing her mansions and ethereal gardens that are unimaginable , and she was completely in love with Father God, and Father God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, and all the Angels and Saints love her immensely and truly also. If you need anything, don’t hesitate to reach out. With all our love, Elsa, Annette, Timothy, Christopher and Victoria. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ In Loving Memory of Margo

A Prayer of Remembrance and Hope

Dear God,

With hearts full of both sorrow and gratitude, we come before You to remember our beloved Margo. She was more than a friend—she was family, a bright light in our lives, and a cherished soul whose presence brought joy, laughter, and love to all who knew her.

Thank You, Lord, for the precious time we shared with Margo. Thank You for the memories that now comfort us—the way she smiled, the warmth of her spirit, the way she made life more beautiful just by being herself.

Lord, we entrust Margo into Your eternal care. Embrace her in Your perfect love and radiant light. Grant her peace and rest in Your presence, where joy never fades and pain is no more. May she feel Your boundless mercy and know she is home—safe, whole, and surrounded by everlasting love.

God, we place our trust in Your perfect compassion. You alone know the depths of each heart, and in Your mercy, we find hope. Continue to watch over Margo and all of us who carry her memory in our hearts.

One day, we believe with hope that we will be reunited with her in Your heavenly kingdom. Until that day comes, help us find peace in Your promises and strength in the love that Margo left behind.

We will never forget her. We will always love her.

*In Jesus' Might and Matchless Name,
Amen. ❤️❤️❤️*

“ So sorry for your loss to all of Margo's family, the good are always gone far too soon. I have many fond memories when we were young with our moms, Lorraine and Jeannette and us kids on our daily visit to the pier swimming, boating, hanging out visiting. Kathy Norten-Ladewig

“ I’m still so in shock,
Margo was not only my aunt but she was a best friend and a mother to me. When I landed back in Chicago the entire air felt different. The gap of her absence is felt not only in the heart but in the atmosphere. I wouldn’t who I am without her. From teaching me the life skills of lawn care, cooking, and doing a budget, to important skills like patience and kindness. Every hard life moment she was there with open arms and hug at the end.
This is a feeling I don’t know if this is a feeling I’ll ever get over, but I know that her power and words will last me for the rest of my life.

“ I will miss seeing Margo heading to the pier with Angie to take a cruise in their boat. She always took time for a friendly chat with the old lady next door. May you rest in peace with your parents. I know your family meant so much to you. ❤️🙏🙏

“ Margo was truly a one of kind special person you meet once in a lifetime. She could always make me laugh. I have known her and Angie for over 25 years and can say it has not only been a privilege but an honor to call her my friend. She was the definition of brave. She will forever be missed but memories of her will live on in my heart always. Heaven just got another angel. May God provide comfort to her family and all who knew Margo at this incredibly sorrowful time. Rest in Peace Marg.
