“ Miss Maria well dearly be missed on my block. She Was one of the most sweetest and most Beautifullest person I've ever known. She was like a teacher with her wealth of knowledge on old music and History to name a few. She was an artist who love to draw from portraits of people to animals. She loved making blanket for babies With her crochet needles as she sat in her living room. She had one of the cutest laughs that was soft and warm like her heart. My Family and I are truly gonna miss this one of a kind lady. Miss Queen Maria May you Rest In Peace until we meet again. Love always Ray and Family

Thank you for taking the time to write that. My mom was so smart! Lol she had Jeopardy on our tv set 24/7... we used to wait til she'd fall asleep so we could watch cartoons. Have you ever played her in gin rummy or Battleship? I'm 40..... I haven't ever beat her. Do you know what that's done to my self esteem??! Hahaha She was a great cook... to this day I've yet to have a bowl of Coco Wheats that could compare. Miss ya ma ☐

“ We’re sorry we’re unable to attend. We love you all very much & you’re all in our hearts & thoughts at this difficult time. Maria you were a beautiful artist & a wonderful mother & Grammie. Thank you for accepting us as your own family & especially Leilani as a granddaughter. She will always cherish your calls, your texts and your advice in art. Which you two shared a passion for. You always had away of making her smile. You’ll be missed dearly. We love you! Alishia & Leilani-Princess
