“Mariann and I were sisters in laws many many years ago (38 yrs) the marriage to her brother ended. although our friendship never ended. I will miss our conversations and the way you made me laugh at times just cause you were such a happy lady. I will miss you very much Sis. My prayers go out to the Prettymans, her siblings and her precious children.

“Mariann and I were friends way back from high school! I always thought she was a sweet girl. We kept in touch over the years even though we didn't always agree on things. I just spoke to her last week and we were agreeing to disagree and happy to be in touch again. Little did I know this would be the last time I would get to speak to her. I know how sad she was about losing her mother. I felt her pain. I am sending my deepest sympathy, condolences, and prayers to the entire family. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God grant you peace.

So many beautiful memories

“ You were so young when I got married and moved out. You would share with me how much you cherished our memories when I would read bedtime stories. We always felt that you were going to be like the princess Cinderella. After years of very hard times, your Cinderella dream started to become a reality for you. I shed tears of joy at your beautiful wedding just 10 months ago. You had so much to look forward to. Oh how we will miss your kindness, compassion, and giving so much of yourself to others. I can't say goodbye, because the truth is we all have an eternal soul that lives forever. And because of our trust in Jesus Christ by his vicarious penal substitution, I am certain beyond doubt that we will see each other again. I find comfort in knowing you have no more pain or sorrows. Rest my sweet little sister, Mariann.

“ Losing a sister means losing a part of our story. Whether we were inseparable or walked different paths, the connection we shared was deep and lasting. Both of us were so happy to have reconnected, We've had our ups and down, It's been only 2 months since we reconciled, we weren't finished. There were still so many conversations to have, so much life to share. Your absence echoes in places I didn't expect. You were my sister and though your life was short, your impact was lasting. You were a devoted daughter, sister, wife and mother, greatly affecting all who knew you. Rest in peace dear sister, hug mom and dad for us.

“ My mommy... what do I even say. I miss you so much. We were supposed to have more time. I had just talked to you. I don't know what I am going to do without you. How am I supposed to live without you? There were so many things I wanted to talk to you about that I will never get the chance to. I love you sooooo much my Maimes. Thank you for loving me unconditionally, thank you for everything you did for me, everything you sacrificed for me and our family. You didn't deserve any of what happened to you. I love you so much mommy. Until we meet again.

Since I was a child you were my sisters friend. You loved God and people with a fierce heart. I just learned your gone, I am sorry, we just chatted, and we said God will handle our burdens. I will miss you telling me I was the cute little girl with Picktails. love you
