Loving wife of Robert Matthew; devoted mother of Tracy (Andrew) Mendygral and Blake Matthew; cherished grandmother of Charlotte and Chase; beloved sister of Ronald (the late Karen) Enlow; loving daughter of the late Lenville and the late Gladys Enlow.

She supported her children and grandchildren during dance recitals and sporting events, crafted Halloween costumes, planned creative birthday parties and hosted Christmas Eve celebrations for extended family. “ This evening I was going through my mother’s birthday book. I found Marjorie Ann’s name and thought I should make contact. I was saddened to learn that I am several months late. Marjorie’s parents and mine were fast friends from the time they were both married in Waukegan. My condolences on the family’s loss. Mary Kay (Krook) Murawski. Bonita Springs, FL

“ I am so sorry to learn of the passing of Margie. She was the first person I met at Drake, and we became close friends. We shared many good times while living in the dorm. We, along with our friend Judy, joined the same sorority and had more adventures and fun. I remember pulling “all nighters” when we had a paper due or a test to study for. Those nights quickly turned into games of charades, hearts, anything to keep us laughing and away from the books. Margie was a lovely person in so many ways and will be missed. Deepest sympathy to Bob and family.
