“ Dear Judy,

The last time I saw your Mom was at a family wedding about seven years ago. She had that trademark smile and irrepressible bounce of spirit. Of course, the entire Madry family were charming and delightful. As a child, I remember your smiling Dad coming on a Saturday to pick up fresh cut meats at my parents' grocery store on Rockwell (Stanley and Mary Ptak's). And a visit to your grandparents on Spalding sometimes for Sunday dinner was an event. I think your grandmother's table was my first experience of dining on fine china. And as we would be leaving, she would sneak a dollar bill into our hands.

The radiant face of your lovely mother will remain as the composite image of my mother's beloved aunt, uncle, and cousins. What a dinner party they all must be having!

*Sincerely,
Dennis Ptak*

“ Another Angel gets their wings. My very first memory of Mrs. M was in her kitchen. They had a dog, I think it's name was Shane. Before I walked any further, Mrs. M said I need to give the dog a treat. This was a huge dog, at least to me. So Mrs. M put a piece of lunchmeat in the palm of my hand, I also had to hold my hand a certain way, so the dog could smell the meat and know I was friendly and then could eat the meat from my hand. Something like that. Oh, and I could not look the dog in the eyes. Well the dog ate the meat and I could go on my merry way. I think I had to do that for a long while before the dog really knew me. Mrs. M is resting now and with her husband, who has been waiting a long time to see her and all her family and friends. God Bless. Please give my mom and dad a big hug from me and a kiss. Happy New Year Mrs. M. love ya and will miss ya. Mary Jarczyk Bolsinger and family

“ Aunt Mary, a beautiful, hard working women. My memories as a child, being at her home with my cousins. Always having fun, eating well, and admiring the candy in the shop. 😍

“ After spending over three weeks in the hospital my Mom finally got to come home, which is where she wanted to be. I was happy to have her here by my side in the comfort of her home. Unfortunately we did not have much time with her at home before she was called to her final resting place. Instead of spending Christmas this year with the best Mom in the world, I was given a beautiful angel that I know will always be looking over me. I love you Mom!
Love your daughter, Judy
