“ My deepest and sincerest sympathies and condolences to everyone that Aunt Maudie's life touched. I unfortunately and regretfully am unable to attend the memorial on Friday, so I am here now to send my love and memories of such a funny, loving, one of a kind lady - Aunt Maudie. I am sure all of the grandchildren of Aunt Maudie can attest to the fact that you and myself and my cousins had two of the BEST grandmothers that this world could offer. For the longest time, I thought Aunt Maudie and my grandma, Kathleen, were twins. I always looked forward to seeing Aunt Maudie and my grandma together because I knew they would always be laughing!!! It is nice to know that now those two sisters and best friends are now reunited, under Gods loving and open arms., in Heaven. Having lost my gma almost three years ago, I always looked to Aunt Maudie to fill that void, even if I only saw her a handful of times in these past few years. It's still hard to believe that yet another Pearson sibling has left life here on Earth, but I am forever thankful to great Grandma and Grandpa Pearson for creating and raising some of the most amazing, caring, loving, incredibly funny and polite children. Them and their spirit, energy and love will never be forgotten. Love you Aunt Maudie xoxo

“ So sorry to hear about your mother. My parents, Bob & Mary Ellen Quinn, have such great memories and funny stories of both Maudie and Chuck! Your dad, Chuck, stood up in their wedding in 1957 and were lifetime friends. Your mom always had a great joke or something funny to share. Your parents are together again for eternity. May God watch over the Gilbert family. Love Mary Pat Quinn-Headley , Elmhurst, IL

“ Mrs. Gilbert always treated me with kindness. I'm sure I pushed her at times while growing up with Chuck and Terry. I have so many great memories of her and Mr Gilbert as I was always welcomed to their home. I'm glad I got to stop by and see her when my wife, Debby and I were in town for my mother's funeral. She made it to both of my parents funerals. She was a wonderful person who blessed many lives. You will be missed. Thank you
