“ In Loving Memory of Max

It is with deep sadness that we say goodbye to Max, a young man whose spirit, resilience, and kindness left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing him. Max was a true fighter—one who faced life’s challenges with unwavering strength and an infectious smile. His courage and determination were nothing short of inspiring, a testament to his incredible heart and willpower.

Beyond his strength, Max’s most beautiful quality was his deep bond with his father, a devoted surveyor and an extraordinary caretaker. Their relationship was one of admiration, love, and unwavering support—a bond that spoke volumes about the kind of son, friend, and soul Max was. To witness their connection was to see pure love in action, a reminder of what truly matters in this world.

Max’s presence brightened every room, and his kindness left a lasting impact on all who met him. It was an honor to have known him, to have shared in his journey, and to have seen his resilience firsthand. Though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit, his love, and his legacy will remain in our hearts forever.

Rest peacefully, Max. You were loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure.

Sending our love from the Samaniego-Giachos Family.

My dear friend, you have been an example and strength for all of us, an Angel who flew unjustly to heaven but who will surely guide us in that light that we all need. Pray for all of us and especially for your beloved dad who will always love you. Never forget that your smile and your sweetness every time I met you with your father and I always thought of the great strength you had to face your life. Always in my heart and in my prayers. There are no tears for these days but only a hope that will make us grow and reflect. Ciao Max!

“ I will never forget taking care of Max when he was a baby in the PICU at Children's Memorial Hospital. Even from a young age, he had a bright light and tough spirit. Max had a truly unfair set of cards dealt to him. Despite this, he was exceedingly kind and funny, and he was an inspiration to us all and, the reason many of us do what we do. I was proud to be his nurse and will remember him always. All my love to his family and friends. -Genny

“ Max and family have made such a positive impact on my life (and I realize countless others). Since getting to know you, Max, some dozen years ago, I have learned to love, live, laugh, explore and experience life more. Your intelligence, humor, persistence, compassion and love ❤️ will be remembered FOREVER!

“ Max was such a sweet, truly wonderful boy. He had so much love to give. His love for his dog, baking, loving banter with Mom; Liv and sharing of new information was admirable. I'll always miss his silliness, friendly chats & brilliant music taste 💕 it was a true honor knowing him. hoping he's resting easy.

“ I write this for me and on behalf of Lisandro, Matthias, Lars, Robert, Angel, and any other of the countless friends Max spent hours with over the course of many years.

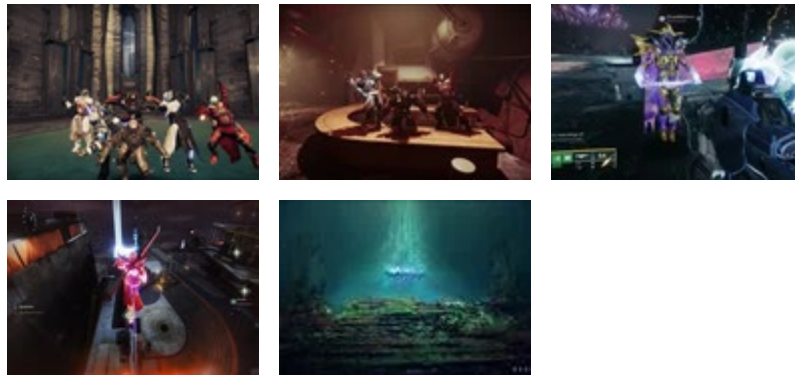

We may not have met in real life often, but we spent so, so much time together. We laughed at the dumbest things. Shared the stupidest stories. Complained about the most irrelevant things. That's all that mattered.

It's unbelievable how much time Max spent with us, with almost complete strangers, even from across the world in Germany. That's how much he valued his friendships.

He was the heart of our team, through thick and thin. We loved him as much as he loved us. We will honor him as best we can. Every day from now on will be for him. Every loss, and every victory.

We love you, Max. You will be honored as Saint-14 was honored. You have Become Legend.
