“ My Thoughts and Prayers are sent to Michael and his family. I knew Mike (Chicken Head) from high school. He was a sweet, fun, silly guy who is gone to soon. I'll never forget the great memories i'm able to hold in my heart of him. Rest In Peace Mike and you'll always be apart of my happy years in life. Love and Miss you always, Theresa DeLavergne West. 💕💕

“ I'm going back in time but I remember little Mike at Churchill School. I was the Crossing Guard and he was one of my favorites with his sly smile. He always made me laugh with his little boy stunts! May he rest in peace. Cheryl Rogan

“ Mike had interaction with lotsa folks, I spent a week fishing with him and "Ern" in Canada.
He was a character and at his young age easy to poke fun at until he caught on and returned the fun in groups and bunches. Saw him a couple years back before I moved and he was the same old Mike. He will be missed by all, near and far.

“ Tim and I are so sorry to hear of Big Mike's passing. We have many find and funny memories of him and Little Mike hanging out at our house in Hoffman Estates. He had a big heart, a kind smile, and a great laugh.

“ Blessings Erickson Family, I am a friend of Sandy's from her Boulder days and all of "the girls" grew to know Michael through Sandy's hilariously funny stories about him and all the pictures we saw of him. Though our minds MAY be slipping every so often these days, we all believe Pat brought Michael and his sisters to visit Sandy in Boulder once. I say this because I feel CERTAIN we all had to wonderful opportunity to meet Michael in person! If not, then he simply was a legend in his own time and came to life through Sandy's stories. I am only one of Sandy's MANY friends who ache with the news of Michael's passing. Holding the Ericksons, your extended family and friends in love and prayer. Sincerely, Judy King

“ Erickson Family, I am sincerely sorry for your loss. It is everyone's loss that was blessed to know and make memories with Mike. I would not be who I am without all of the experiences and memories made growing up at your house and in our neighborhood. I pray his soul is at peace and we all get a chance to hug him again when our time comes. Sending my love.
