“ Rest in Peace Lemmer. So glad we were recently able to reconnect. I enjoyed our talks. You were always such a nice, funny, real guy who cherished his family & friends. Sad it's been years though since I have seen you in person. Life is definitely too short. I know you're in a good place though. You were definitely taken too soon. Until we meet again my friend Rest easy. Love you 💔🙏😞 Bree

“ To my friend who was taken away too soon,
I wish I would have been able to say goodbye to you. I wish that I would have made time to contact you. I wish I would not have let years go by without seeing you. There were many times I sat and thought of you and giggled thinking of how much fun we always had. Im so sorry for not being there in the end. I hope you know that I never thought any less of our friendship.
I'm sorry that the last time we “talked” was by a text.
I miss you and think about you all the time. A memory that will always be with me and will always make me smile, is when I picture the first time we met at a friend of yours wedding and within minutes you made me feel like we had been friends forever! We actually shared a dance together!
I will always cherish the many parties we had at our house, just because, and all the parties with my family included and how you were always such a big help! We brought in many New Year's and celebrated Christmas, Easter, 4th of July fireworks and many birthdays! I appreciate all the in-depth talks we would have about life in general whenever we were together. Your laugh, your smile, your kind heart will be something that I will never forget.
I have learned that there is no better time than now to do better. To do all I can while I have the time -- and unfortunately, your passing showed me this. I will continue to pray all the time for your family and friends, and I pray that you are in Heaven finding your way.
To my amazing friend who was taken too soon, I love you and “Always a pleasure.”

Sincerely~Nicole and Chris Rosene

“ I was sent this picture from VC yesterday of Mikey back in 90s with his I-Roc
Mikey loved that car but never forgave me for getting to drive it before he ever did. Mike and Harry came to my house straight from the dealer, when they pulled up Harry was driving and Mike was sitting shotgun. They got out of the car and we were all saying hi to each other and Mike as always was hugging and saying hello to my sisters and her friends. While he was over there i asked Harry if I could take it for a spin and he said sure just don't screw it up. 30 min later after taking it on a proper test drive I arrive back at my house with I-roc intact but Harry's ready to kill me and Mikey looking like I had taken his GF. But even with that we laughed about it and that night and it has been told many times since.....
Somehow the stories just wont seem the same without him there...
Ill miss you my friend

"My Boy Blu"

And oh yeah good old Ziebart, what a nightmare job for him that was especially having Paul and I working there. Everybody knows me Vinnie, when I was hired by Mike I negotiated two 15 minute Union breaks even though the shop wasn't Union, he still granted them to me. This is what my union break consisted of, grabbing a folding chair going out in front of the building leaning the folding chair against the wall and catching some sun. You can only imagine what kind of sight that was, oh my poor friend. And the crap games oh God those were great and let's not forget using the hanger to grab candy out of the machine too funny. That kid really had his hands full with me there, it was just non-stop comedy. I remember when he was teaching me how to undercoat cars and specially how to stay away from the exhausting stuff, well once again everybody knows Vinnie and well it just seemed much easier to me to act like I'm spray-painting the hole underneath of the car instead of taking my time, Let me tell you guys me and Paul would almost pee our pants when those cars would leave the shop looking like they were on fire, all the smoke from the exhaust and the undercoating. We all had a good laugh at that and yet the kid wouldn't fire me because I told him I'd collect unemployment against him 😏😏😏😏😏 I'm telling you like all we sure did have some good laughs with him. I really don't know how that company ever made money but then again they're no longer around are they 😏😏

“ We lost our dear friend but all the memories will always keep him alive in all of us. There's not one of his friends that think of him which always brings a smile to each of us. You know that having friends of 40 years says a lot. You don't hear that often with our generation, it was always our parents or grand parents that would tell us about their long friendships, now we could say that to our kids. It is all so special to have that. We are all blessed. Mikey the " Lemm Lock " was a very special, my gentle giant friend had a heart of gold. There was nothing the kid wouldn't do for anyone he gave his best effort to all. I have been fortunate to have a lot of memories with him some good and some bad but we always stuck together thru thick and thin, that's just what friends do. The camping trips, Vegas trip, and of course the great Hawaii trip where Mikey was gonna run across the ocean when his dad found out he was in Hawaii lol what a great trip that's when the fun began for that trip, cuz tipical Mike style he was suppose too pay bills with that money oh boy, Mike thanks you Kelly my brother for spilling the beans to Harry on a job site. Mike my brother, my friend was dearly loved and will be missed dearly.
I love you kid and may you rest gentle in Gods hands now. Rest in forever peace my dear friend. 🙏😭

“ Also, good memories of working at the Mobil station at Palatine Rd & Northwest Highway. Lemmer would often stop by to hang out, and many times we would detail our cars in-between customers. You will be missed, my friend!

“ I remember when Mike worked at Ziebart Auto Detailing in downtown Palatine. On the weekends, Mikey would open shop after hours, and our group would meet there to play craps. What a fun time. Oh, to be young again!
