“ I wish to extend my sincerest condolences to Micki's family on her passing. I worked with Micki off and on for almost 20 years. I haven't seen her in person since I left Chicago in 2004, but we work for the same department and communicated from time to time.

My fondest memory of Micki was when she drove into the parking lot of one of the VITAS offices in a bright yellow Mini Cooper. I did a double take, and I thought to myself "I think that was Micki -----No, it couldn't be!" So I took my time going inside the building, so I could see if it was really her getting out of the car. And it was. I went over and started teasing her, and we laughed and laughed.

Micki had a great spirit, and a wonderful sense of humor. She was also an excellent trainer. She will greatly missed.
