“ I first met Iggy and family in San Diego through the DeJesus family. We all experienced the warm sunset and breeze of Oceanside after a week of unusual rain in CA. I shall remember that moment when we were all gathered at the roof top restaurant enjoying the light and warmth. As we left, we collected ourselves for a final pose in the elevator. That is the moment that we all shared together in that cozy quarter and is so cherished to this day. Memories of Iggy and family is what we shall always carry and we will continue to remember him by the Iggy's signature wide smile, space and time we all shared together. Rest in peace with your heavenly family and Kaka VJ is also with you.

“ Miguel was a shining light at Batory. Whether it was in the middle of the pandemic or a normal Tuesday, I knew when I walked through those doors I would find him there to say hello to. He and Steph across from one another is a fixture I will miss dearly. Miguel was clearly adored by so many. I'm proud to have known him and been one who did too.

*Sincerely,
Kyle*

“ Dearest Ann, Manny & kids,
The whole family's visit to CA in Dec 2021 was indeed a blessing, albeit unknowing it was the last time I was going to see my inaanak (godson). Iggy Boy.
However little time we all got to spend together, I am grateful. Iggy was a young man with a quiet demeanor, he was kind-hearted, with a beautiful laugh and absolutely fun to be around. I will miss him...
I pray that you stay strong. You have our love, our support & prayers.
Luv you guys, Che & De Jesus Fam ❤️
