“Mudrika Aunty was one of my favorite people in this world, and I’m heartbroken by this loss. The world has truly lost another irreplaceable soul.

For as long as I can remember, she never missed sending me a birthday message. Even more meaningful were the messages she sent each year on the anniversary of my dad’s passing—small acts of kindness that brought comfort and a smile on one of the hardest days for me. That was who she was: deeply thoughtful, selfless, and full of love.

I will miss her dearly. This is such a difficult loss to process, but just as she always said and did for me when my dad left this world, we will always be here for Dave Uncle, Sam, Tina, and the entire family.

God bless her soul. I know my dad is there to welcome her and guide her on her next journey.
