

Dr. Mulla Punnoose of Hoffman Estates

December 18, 1945 - December 3, 2019

Dr. Mulla Punnoose, 73, of Hoffman Estates, Illinois.

Dr. M.C. Punnoose (Mullamangalam Chacko Punnoose, known as Baeben within the family) died on December 3, 2019 in Hoffman Estates, Illinois, USA. He is survived by his wife Elizabeth Punnoose known as Nirmala within the family, his oldest son Jacob, daughter-in-law Shinu, grandchildren Andrew (9), Sonia (4), and Anna (1), and youngest son Matthew, daughter-in-law Eliza, and grandchildren Sophia (9) and Teresa (5). Dr. Punnoose is also survived by his older sisters Vimala Varghese in Trivandrum, Kerala, India, Molly Jacob in Pallom, Kerala, India, Mary Varghese in St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada, and his older brother Dr. Kevin Koshy in Boston, Massachusetts, USA.

Dr. Punnoose was born on December 18, 1945 to V.K. Chacko and Aleyamma (Abraham) Chacko in Trivandrum, Kerala, India. He studied at the Model School in Trivandrum, before joining the Trivandrum Medical College. After graduation, Dr. Punnoose worked as a surgeon in Kerala, before emigrating to the US in 1971 for his residency at Northwestern University at Evanston Hospital. He was board-certified in pathology, and practiced from 1975-1996 in Beardstown, Illinois as a pathologist at Beardstown Hospital and as a primary care physician at Beardstown Clinic. Dr. Punnoose retired in 1996 to move with his wife to Hoffman Estates, Illinois, to be closer to their sons studying at Northwestern University.

He was an active member of St. Gregorios Orthodox Church in Elmhurst, and was heavily involved in the planning, fundraising, and administration of the church's move from Oak Park, Illinois to Elmhurst, Illinois. In India, he was an active member of St. Thomas Orthodox Church in the Kumarapuram neighborhood of Trivandrum.

Dr. Punnoose will be missed dearly by his family, friends, neighbors, colleagues, patients, church members, and others for his wisdom, kindness, and care for others.

Visitation will be Saturday, December 7, 2019 from 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. at Morizzo Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 2550 West Hassell Road, (Northeast corner of Barrington Road), Hoffman Estates, IL, 60169.

“ Jacob and family, many thoughts and prayers are with you.

I did not have the opportunity to meet your dad, but in reading a little bit about him, I can see the caring, work ethic, and bright light that he most certainly instilled within his family. May you find comfort in sharing memories over the coming days and years.

With hugs, Michelle Hansen and family

“ I worked with Dr. Punnoose for many years first at Beardstown Hospital then in surgery in Rushville,IL. I was proud to call him my friend and learned much from a talented doctor. My sympathies to his family. His sons were about the same age as my children so we had lots of children stories to share. His legacy will live on in his past work and the hearts of those who cared for him. Anna Marie Schieferdecker (Root)

“ I'm so sad to hear this news. Dr. Punnoose was an ethical, kind, noble man. He always carried himself with dignity and conducted himself professionally. He was quick to smile, friendly, and obviously had a warm heart. I'm so happy to have known him, and I'm proud to call his sons my friends. Dr. Punnoose will be remembered with great fondness.

Sincerely,
Scott Foley
