Nancy was loved and adored by so many. She lit up any room she walked into with her bigger-than-life personality. Her family meant everything to her, and Nancy was the true matriarch of her family. She always put others' needs before her own, always planned and hosted events making sure everyone was together. She never forgot a birthday, an anniversary, or special life event. She listened, she cared, she loved unconditionally.

Whether it was jet setting to some new fun place or playing cards with her friends or cooking for her family, Nancy loved to be busy. She had a zest for life and was truly a woman to aspire to be like. After spending time in Nancy's company you always felt filled with love.

“ In the short time I got to meet Nancy, I always felt so loved by her.

She was so much fun. I'll always remember our holiday Taboo games. I think that's the most I've ever laughed — belly laughs, tears running down my cheeks. I can still hear her trying to pronounce LeBron (LeBron) James and giving her team clues that lead to nowhere. She didn't get a single point for her team, but we wouldn't dare think of playing without her.

I'm so glad Jaxon got to meet his great gamma. We have her handwritten letters and personalized cards to share with him when he gets older. Jax and Nancy both share their love for piggies 🐷. His favorite stuffed animal is Mr. Piggy. I love to think it's because of her.

We miss you dearly, Nancy. We love you 💕💕
