Your fracture during visit of Maa Vaishno Devi at Aadhkuwari, taught us how to remain cool n composed during crisis. It's just one example off large number of teachings we had from you. Pray Maa Vaishno to give peace to the great soul.*

“ Mullick jijaji, or jeeaaai as I used to call him as a little girl, was a true gentleman with a generous heart. Many fond memories with him including going to Nikhil/Sahils birthdays as kids and getting these HUGE pencils, numerous summer trips to Patel Nagar, his love & care when I was studying in India and most recently Nikhil's wedding in India and Sahils wedding in Chicago. I admired Jeeaaai's kind and lovable nature and "all is well" attitude to life. I will miss him so much and his sweet dance moves. From the bottom of my heart, wishing his soul rests in peace and moves onwards with ease. Sending baba's blessings, love & strength to Shashi mausi, Nikhil, Sahil, Garima, Sam & little ones. Warm regards & love,

“ Uncle by bond over the years with his two amazing sons Nikhil and Sahil, has grown to an actual uncle and nephew relationship. Uncle was as humble, kind, loving, caring soul! I remember first time meeting uncle and until the end he was always happy and felt great to be around. Uncle was very professional person working high position yet very down to earth person who I can chat easily and enjoy fun passing times like wrestling match. One of many great memories had with Uncle. Uncle made me feel like part of the family every time going to India, especially car rides with Uncle during family events. Uncle would point out each part of Delhi best shops, food, etc. You have touched so many lives by your selfless and countless acts of kindness, always giving and never expecting any favors in return.

Rest in peace Uncle, We will definitely miss you
