“ To the only person who is always proud of me..

Thank you for being my light during the dark times of my life, for cheering me on to fight, for showing me my value and for your unexpected love. All your advice will be my guide for life. I will take all that into my heart, Ate Inday...you know ily..

You will stay with me and never be forgotten...until we meet again

“ To my beloved PiNang,

Here are my memories with you that I'll hold dear forever:

- This precious photo, what a smile!
- The fact that you gave me my nickname, Macon - one of a kind right?
- And the beautiful story of your life that continues to inspire me, the best!

True to the meaning of your name, Olga, which means "Blessed," you were truly a blessing to everyone around you. We are all fortunate to have had you in our lives.

Although we didn't speak often or see each other much, from the moment I knew you—and from those stories my Papa and Mama would never tire of telling—which I could feel how dear you were to them, my respect and love for you never wavered.

Thank you for sharing your beautiful life with us. Please know up there that we sooooo much appreciate you! Though we may not be there, in our hearts, you will forever remain as our Tita, Pinang, Ninang, and Ate Olga. Surely you will be missed!

Rest in Paradise Ate! Mission accomplished! We cherish you deeply...a big hug and love from all of us here...Until then...
