“ Lesbia Edith Abel and myself, her ex-husband Friedrich Abel, would like to express our deeply felt condolences to the Rivera family. I have many fond memories of Humberto from the two years my wife Lesbia, myself and our newborn son William lived in the house of Humberto's parents Pastor and Edna in La Ceiba, Honduras. Many years later, when we had settled in Arizona, Humberto came to visit us and we had many good times together, visiting the nearby Navajo Indian reservation and exploring the canyons in our neighborhood. Humberto was always in a good mood and inspired us all with his energy and positive outlook on life. These gifts he shared with us and they will stay with us forever. Thank you, Humberto! You were a good family man and a positive role model for everyone. You made a difference in this world. Thank you! 🙏🍀
